Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This letter is in response to the communication "Reject Stamp Cancellation" filed on August 16, 2001. In the case, claims 1-36 have been cancelled. Claims 37 and 38 are currently pending in this application.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statements (2) submitted have been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 37 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Robert Cordery (U.S. Patent No: 6,085,182) hereinafter referenced as Cordery.

As Per Claim 37:

Cordery discloses a method for canceling an official postal product having a first area having an official postal indicia and a second area having a personal image, said official postal indicia capable of being located on said postal product using a sensing device, comprising the steps of, [{abstract}], canceling mail piece includes transporting, printing device, device for detecting presence, location on first one]:

scanning said postal product using said sensing device for obtaining information with respect to the location of said first area, [{abstract}], receiving detection data from detecting device];

canceling only said first area based on said information obtained from said scanning, [{abstract}], receiving detection data from the detecting device for causing the printing indicium cancellation mark].

As Per Claim 38:

Cordery discloses a method wherein said canceling is provided using an ink jet printer, [col.5, lines 4-8}, three ink jet print-heads and to print a cancellation mark across the stamps].
